A LEVEL SOCIOLOGY LEARNING JOURNEY

Welcome

YEAR 12 September

- Introduction to Sociology and Education module taught by RMO
- Mocks
- Mock preparation
- Demographic trends in the UK
- Nature of childhood
- Gender roles, domestic labour and power
- Marketisation of Education
- Comprehensive schools
- History of Education
- Ethnicity and educational achievement
- Gender and educational achievement
- Social class and educational
- Statistics by social groups
- Pupil Sub-Cultures
- Processes in School & the curriculum
- Teacher/pupil interactions
- Vocational education
- Marxist views
- Functionalist and New Rights views on education
- Independent Schools
- Sociological Methods - Data
- considerations
- Mock preparation
- Mocks
- Families and Households Module taught by HIL
- Functionalist views
- Marxist views
- Feminist views
- New Rights views
- Postmodernist views
- Impact of Government legislations
- Trends within families and households

YEAR 13 January

- Media representation
- Victims
- Role of the criminal justice system
- Sociological Methods: Types of data continued
- Media representation of age and class
- Mock Preparation
- Mocks
- Sociological Methods: Positivism and interpretivism continued
- Mock Preparation
- Summer exams
- GAP analysis and revision
- Media representation of ethnicity and gender
- Modernity and postmodernity
- The science debate
- The relationship between sexuality and disability
- The relationship between the media and audiences
- Relationship between theory and
- Sociology and social policy
- GAP analysis and revision
- Summer exams
- Value freedom debate
- Models of media influence

YEAR 13 September

- Media Module Taught by HIL
- Crime and Deviance Module Taught by RMO
- Control, prevention, and punishment
- Surveillance
- Mocks
- State Crime
- Green Crime
- Mass Media and Crime
- The New Media
- Ownership and Control of the Media
- Interactionalism
- Right and left realists' views
- Social class and statistics
- Ethnicity and statistics
- Marxist views on the media
- Neo-Marxist views on the media
- Pluralist views on the media
- Postmodernist views on the media
- Gender and statistics
- Globalisation
- Public service broadcasting
- Selection and Presentation of the news
- Debates relating to cultural imperialism
- Globalisation and the media

Future Pathways

- Apprenticeship
- Degree
- Employment