

BTEC HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE (EXTENDED CERTIFICATE)

COURSE OUTLINE:

Exam Board: Pearson

This provides students with a range of theoretical and practical opportunities to develop their interests in IT in ways that are personally relevant. Students will complete units in working in health and social care, human development and meeting individual needs.

The course consists of internal and external elements.

SKILLS REQUIRED:

Students progressing onto this course will require:

Excellent communication skills

Independent learning and revision skills

The ability to meet coursework deadlines

FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES:

This qualification could prepare you for careers and further opportunities in:

Hospitals

Care homes

University studies